

LA-BRAVA

BRUTE CAVA

Denominación de Origen

La Brava Cava is made in the north-east region of Spain and holds “Denominación de Origen” (DO) status in Spain, meaning it must be produced following specific guidelines to bear the name “Cava”. La Brava is medium bodied and dry with a distinct minerality and racy acidity. The bubbles are very fine and produce a smooth and creamy mouthfeel.

Profile

La Brava Cava opens with lively citrus favors, followed by tart apple and almonds. The smooth and creamy finish has a touch of fig.

Pair

La Brava Cava pairs exceptionally well with BBQ, Chinese style stir-fry or noodle dishes, fried fish, salmon and sushi. A charcuterie board with Manchego cheese, cured meats and olives would be delicious as well.
