

PIETRA NERA

Nero D'Avola

Sicily, Italy

Nero D'Avola is the most famous red variety to come from Sicily. With Nero D'Avola you can expect moderately high acidity, but not so tart that the wine tastes overly spicy. Pietra Nera is made with 100% Nero D'Avola grapes, picked at perfect maturation to achieve a beautiful, warm, medium-bodied wine with perfect tannin levels. After fermentation, further aging in the bottle enhances the richness of this flavorful wine.

Profile

Pietra Nera has a dark, dense ruby color with marvelous hints of licorice, black cherries, blueberries and blackberries. The palate is concentrated, powerful, and warm with a medium-bodied supple texture.

Pair

Pietra Nera Nero D'Avola pairs extremely well with steaks, burgers, beef stew, barbecue and pasta with meaty tomato sauce. The bold flavor of the wine allows it to cut through the fats, oils, and richness of these foods.
