

FAMIGLIA SANTUCCI

Chianti Riserva DOCG

Tuscany, Italy

Sourced from grapes grown in the vineyards of Italy's Chianti area. The ripe grapes are harvested from the regions best vineyards and almost immediately crushed in order to minimize oxidation. When the primary fermentation is finished, the wine is stored in contact with the skins for greater extraction of color and structure. At the end of fermentation, the wine is stored at a constant temperature in Slavonian oak casks for a minimum period of 24 months.

Profile

The bright ruby red color gives way to an intense and characteristic bouquet, fruity with a violet fragrance. Harmonious with notes of dark cherries, chocolate and earth flavors.

Pair

Chianti wine is as essential to Italian cuisine as extra virgin olive oil. Santucci Chianti Riserva is delicious paired with tomato-based pasta sauce, pizza, porterhouse steak and cured sausages like Italian Soppresata as well as grilled vegetables
