

TREMOR

Cabernet Sauvignon

Lodi

The Tremor Cabernet Sauvignon grapes are grown in the sub-appellation of Lodi, located in the central valley of California. Situated between the Sierra Nevada foothills and the San Francisco Bay, the soils here are very sandy, which increases the aromatic intensity, creating bold fruit-forward wines. This area has the perfect growing climate of warm sunny days and mild evening breezes. Tremor Cabernet Sauvignon, a wine that shakes the foundation of great wines.

Profile

This perfect glass of Lodi Cabernet Sauvignon comes out of the bottle with aromas of cocoa and cedar. Lush flavors of blueberry, raspberry, vanilla, peppery spice and toasted oak with tannins just as they should be. The finish is full, round and lingering.

Pair

Pair Tremor Cabernet Sauvignon with beef tenderloin, braised short ribs, pork sausages and charred crust pizza. Wonderful with aged Gouda and Pecorino cheese.
