

TREMOR

Chardonnay

The adaptable and versatile Chardonnay grape is one of the most popular varietals around the world. In California, there are roughly 98,000 acres of farmland dedicated to Chardonnay production, making it the most widely planted varietal in the state. Chardonnay grapes display a willingness to thrive across a broad range of vineyard locations.

Dive in to Tremor creamy Chardonnay and let the bright flavors of citrus and butterscotch shake your pallet. Tremor Chardonnay offers an excellent balance of brilliant acidity and toasted oak to complement its seismic finish.

Profile

Tremor Chardonnay displays perfumed notes of nectarine and grilled pineapple on the nose, leading through to a delightful ripe peach and golden delicious apple on the palate, ending with a lingering, creamy and fresh finish.

Pair

Enjoy with eggs Benedict, grilled fish, tarragon roasted chicken or a creamy pasta dish. Delicious cheese pairings include Brie, fresh Mozzarella and goat cheese.
